

Which is most important to you?

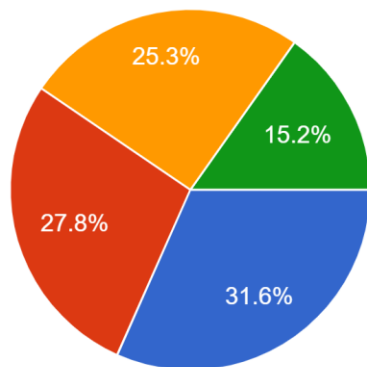

79 responses

- The activities available to your child in before and after care
- The cost of childcare
- The continuity of the Educators at the service
- The availability of community-focused activities

Which EHOSHC focus week is most important to you?

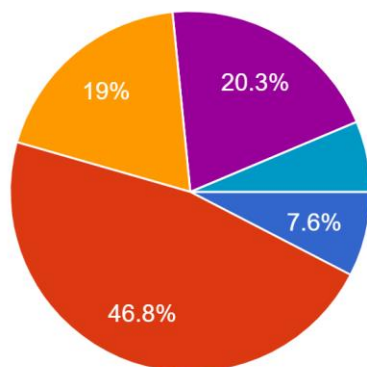

79 responses

- Safety Week
- Diversity Week
- Health Week
- Environment Week

It is most important for my child to participate in:

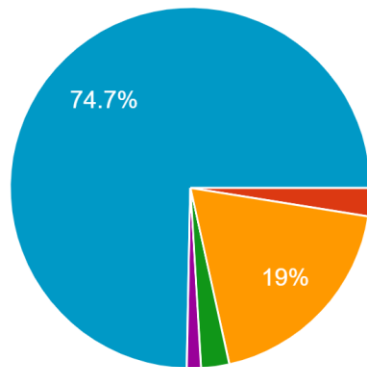

79 responses

- Structured educational lessons
- Sports/active/outdoor activities
- Art/craft/creative activities
- Quiet indoor activities (board games/puzzles/card games etc)
- Expressive activities (drama/music/dance)
- Environmental activities (gardening/recycling/composting/worm-farming)

What is MOST important for you in an OSHC educator?

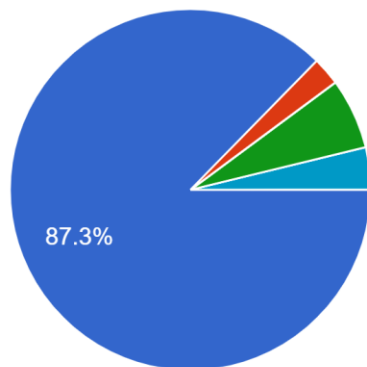

79 responses

- Their sex (male/female etc)
- Their qualifications
- Their experience
- Their appearance/how they present
- Their interactions with you
- Their interactions with your child(ren)

What is LEAST important for you in an OSHC educator?

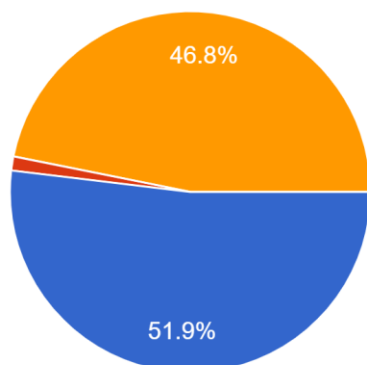

79 responses

- Their sex (male/female etc)
- Their qualifications
- Their experience
- Their appearance/how they present
- Their interactions with you
- Their interactions with your child(ren)

(Despite the service having a waiting list) Do you feel as though during the time you have utilised EHOSHC the serv...ded to your child and your family has:

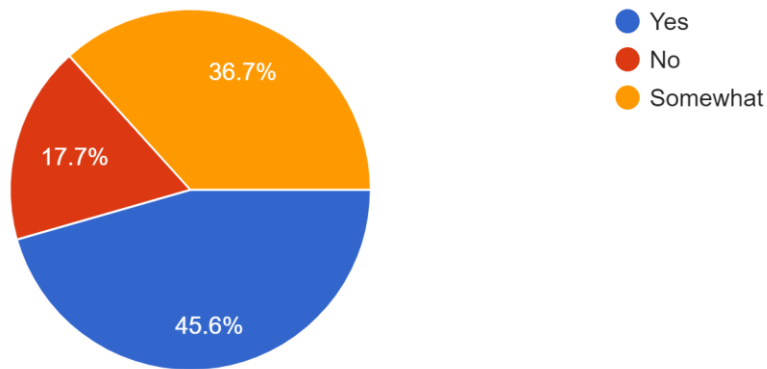

79 responses

- Remained relatively the same
- Has declined in quality
- Has improved

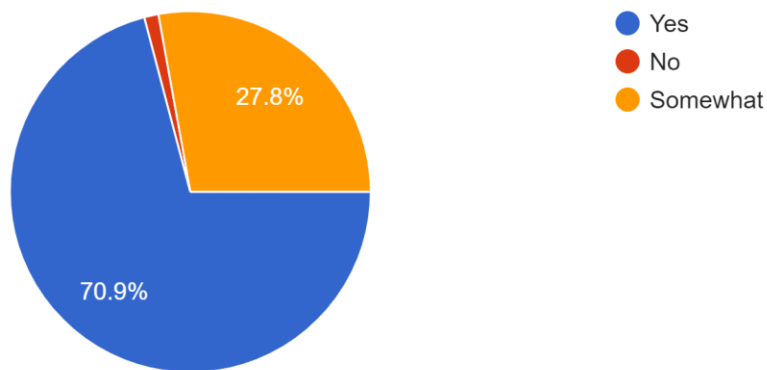

EHOSHC has recently been focusing on our partnerships and relationships with our families and communities. Are you aware of ANY of these initiatives?

79 responses

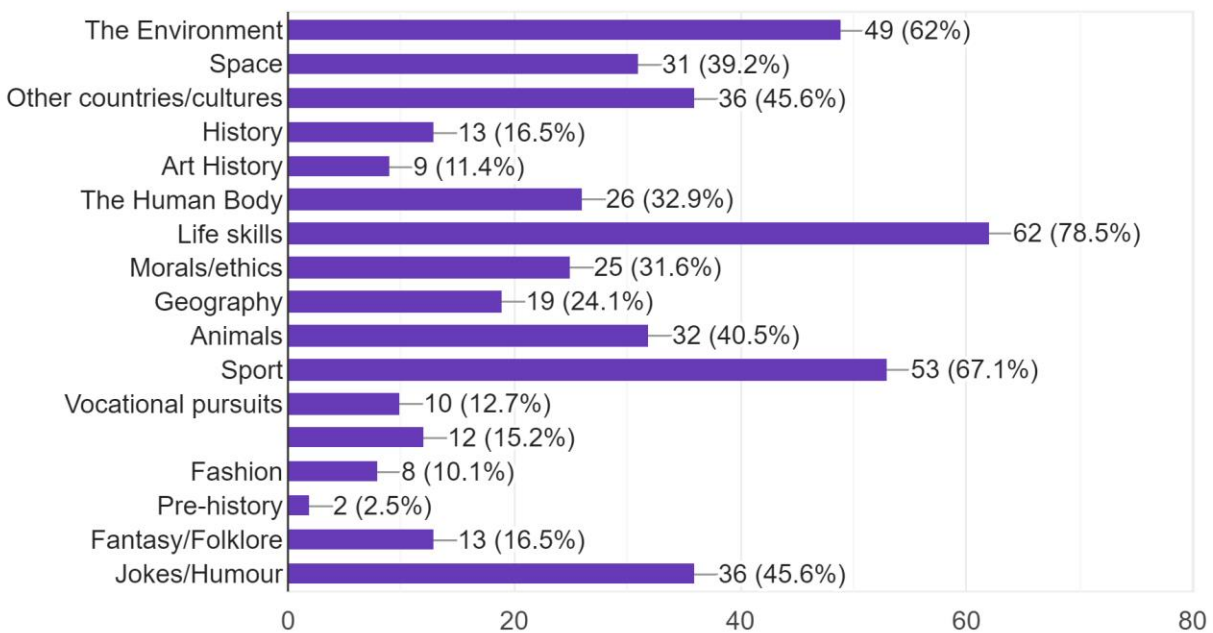

Do you feel as though the individual needs and interests of your child are sufficiently accommodated by EHOSHC?

79 responses

Please select topics you feel your child would be most interested in learning about whilst at EHOSHC? (please select 5)

79 responses

Did our recent increase in Vacation Care capacity assist you and your family?

79 responses

