RECRUITMENT

Recruitment of casual staff may be carried out by the centre coordinator with assistance from centre administration (utilising existing staff pool) and in liaison with Centre management. Recruitment of permanent staff, a selection panel may be necessary.

When the position of Centre Coordinator or Assistant Coordinator becomes available the Management Committee will appoint a selection panel to conduct the selection process. The panel will consist of three: two members of Management and the Centre Coordinator for assistance.

Experienced contractors (e.g. Administrative Service Providers) may be asked to join the panel to provide an external viewpoint on desirable characteristics for the position. A convenor for the panel will be nominated.

Where the position is for the out-going Centre Coordinator, a staff representative will be placed on the panel.

The panel will:

- Approve the job description and select criteria for the position.
- Determine the method and placement of advertising and place the advertisement including notification of the Working with Children Check. Should it be determined that the method is internal recruitment only, the convenor will be responsible for performing the below steps through to making a decision on the preferred applicant, put before the Management for final approval.
- Ask applicants to consent to screening
- Short-list the applicants.
- Arrange interview questions, date and time.

- Contact the applicants for an interview.
- Conduct the interviews.
- Select a suitable preferred applicant and rank any others who meet the standard.
- Arrange for the Working with Children Check on the preferred applicant.
- Ensure that the preferred applicant is verified in the Office of the Children's Guardian portal.
- Consider if the applicant is suitable to work with children taking into consideration their attitudes and experience.
- Check relevant references.
- Make a decision on the preferred applicant, which is put before the Management Committee for final approval.
- Offer the position to the successful applicant and contact the unsuccessful applicants after the position has been accepted.
- Set date for the commencement of employment and orientation of the new person.
- Prepare a letter of offer and contract in line with the Children's Services Award (2010).

Advertisements

Advertisements shall be placed in local and regional newspapers as well as relevant advertising websites such as Network of Community Activities.

Advertisements are to include:

- Job title
- Specific employment information, including hours of work and rate of pay.
- Requirement for applicant to be willing to obtain an Employee Working With Children Check
- Commitment of the OSHC to Child Safety
- Closing date and postal address for applicants
- Contact name and number where the applicant can obtain more information
- Email address for applicant to forward relevant information

Applicants in writing should include;

- I. Contact telephone numbers
- II. Resume

III. Minimum of (2) referees with at least one being a work reference

Interview

The selection panel will draw up suitable interview questions based on Child Safe Principles, which relate to all aspects of the position, include competency and scenario-based questions, and ensure equal opportunity guidelines are followed. The panel will decide who will ask each question.

The panel will draw up a list of essential requirements for each answer.

No longer than 5 days after the closing date, the panel will meet to discuss the applications, develop a short-list and decide on the interview date and times.

An appropriate time frame will be allocated to each interview, with a short break between for discussion.

Each applicant will be given a copy of the job description and relevant forms before the interview. Only the preferred applicant will be required to return the paperwork to the panel.

Each applicant will be asked the same questions with their answers recorded.

The panel may use a rating scale to evaluate each applicant's answers.

The Management Committee are to discuss each applicant and their suitability for the position based on their answers, qualifications and experience, and the selection criteria drawn up by the panel.

Should the committee have difficulty in deciding between two applicants, a second interview for these applicants will be conducted with new questions.

The Management Committee will then make a decision on the applicant for the job according to the selection criteria. The preferred applicant's referees will be contacted to confirm applicant's suitability including questions about their opinion on the applicant working with children.

The preferred applicants WWCC must be verified before being offered a position within the service.

Should the applicant decline the position, the Management Committee will either make a second choice from the other applicants or if none are seen as suitable, re-advertise the position.

Notification

Applicants will be given an approximate timeframe as to when they will be contacted regarding their success for the position.

A person on the selection panel will notify the successful applicant and negotiate a starting date.

After the appointment has been made and accepted the other applicants will be notified that the position has been filled

Equal Employment Opportunities

All staff positions will be advertised according to the Equal Opportunities Act.

No one will be discriminated against on the basis of his or her cultural background, religion, sex, disability, marital status or income.

All applicants and referees will be asked the same questions.

Selection will be based only on suitability for the position and based on the selection criteria, which have been drawn up by the panel. The criteria will cover issues such as qualifications and experience, appropriate knowledge to meet the children's needs, good communication skills, demonstration in being a fit and proper person for the job, including Working with Children Check and appropriate answers to the interview questions.
